PUTTING

ME

FIRST

.....

Yesterday I was with a group of friends having a few drinks. My friend Lewis was telling me about this new pill called PrEP. He said that it's used to prevent people from contracting HIV. I didn't know what to think, nor did I believe him. Perhaps I should have asked more questions, but I wasn't sold on the whole thing. Recently, I started dating this guy name Darius who just told me of his HIV status. We haven't had sex yet, but the feelings are definitely there. Perhaps it was meant to be that Lewis talked to me about PrEP. After doing my own research and having a few discussions, I am considering getting on PrEP. I mean if Darius, the guy I'm dating, can be honest with me, then I owe it to myself to protect myself!
